

Medi-Cal Peer Certification Stakeholder Advisory Council Member

Min Suh | Orange County

Min Suh is a person in recovery and a macro social worker who works as MHSO Coordination Assistant and Peer Workforce Liaison for the County of Orange. Min has been promoting peer support and advocating for its certification, while pushing for recovery oriented public mental health system since entering the behavioral health field as a peer support specialist in 2012. Min has formerly served on the state's Mental Health Services Oversight & Accountability Commission's Client & Family Leadership Committee and on a local level, he leads the Peer Employee Advisory Committee (PEACE), which is a peer advisory committee to the county behavioral health director. Min strives to ensure that perspectives and wisdom of those with lived-experience inform the system and inspire the community to believe that recovery is possible.
